Welcome to apply for the chance to present your research!

Description

The Marcus Wallenberg Foundation invites to the Young Researchersâ?? Challenge with the opportunity to attend the Prize ceremony and banquet in honour of the 2020 Marcus Wallenberg Prize Winners in Stockholm, Sweden. The whole event has been postponed to next autumn.

The Marcus Wallenberg Prize event was planned for October 2020. Due to the covid-19 pandemic The Marcus Wallenberg Foundation has decided to postpone the ceremony and symposium to next autumn. The Young Researchersâ?? Program will also be postponed.

The Young Researchersâ?? Challenge is now closed.

Post-docs or PhD students 35 years old or younger are invited to apply through our form at mwp.org/yrc2020. The contribution should not exceed 200 words and must be submitted not later than 30 July 2020.

After evaluation, some 30 applicants will be invited to the Marcus Wallenberg Prize ceremony and extended program. All winning participants are expected to submit a short abstract on their research project to be presented in a poster session.

Present your vision

Describe your research and how you think it will have an impact on the forest-based industry and society as a whole. Present your vision and how current obstacles can be overcome. Feel free to discuss opportunities in a wide range of research and business areas in the sector.

The 2020 Marcus Wallenberg Prize recognizes the research of Joseph J Landsberg, Richard H Waring and Nicholas C Coops. They are awarded the 2020 Marcus Wallenberg Prize for the development of the 3PG model to predict forest growth in a changing climate, see press release.

The Young Researchersâ?? Program offers:

- Lectures and guided visits in the Stockholm area.
- Participation in a â??3-Minute Presentationâ?• session, where the MWP Selection Committee is the jury.
- Ceremony and banquet to be held in the presence of Their Majesties the King and Queen of Sweden.
- Symposium on the theme of the 2020 Prize.
- A poster session in connection with the Symposium where you can discuss your research with leading scientists and industry representatives.
- A meeting with the 2020 prize winners.

Who covers the costs for travel and accommodation?

Applicants need to cover their own costs for travel to Stockholm and accommodation in connection to the event. For applicants from Swedish organizations the MW Foundation has managed to find financing from separate sources. International applicants are encouraged to apply for funding from their own universities or other financiers.
