Symposium 1993

Description

Environmentally Friendly Pulp Manufacturing (1993)

Lectures given at the 1993 Marcus Wallenberg Prize Symposium held in Stockholm on September 30, 1993.

Basic knowledge for the modified kraft pulping processes

Professor Ants Teder, co-recipient of the 1993 Marcus Wallenberg Prize, Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden

Implementing modified kraft pulping in mill scale

Professor Nils Hartler, co-recipient of the 1993 Marcus Wallenberg Prize, Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, Sweden

Extended delignification and the environment

Dr. F. Keith Hall, International Paper, Tuxedo, N.Y., USA
Member of the Marcus Wallenberg Prize Selection Committee

Environmentally friendly pulp manufacturing â?? a European view

Professor Dominique Lachenal, Centre Technique du Papier, Grenoble, France, Member of the Marcus Wallenberg Prize Selection Committee